

December 23, 2024

For whom it may concern

The Organizing Committee of the 1st Annual International Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses 2024 is pleased to confirm the recognition of Ms. Ani Nikohosyan as a Laureate of the Awards. She was selected from a highly competitive pool of nominees for her outstanding professional achievements and full alignment with the Awards' principles of excellence, integrity, and meaningful public impact.

Ms. Ani Nikohosyan is an experienced journalist and media professional with over 15 years in television broadcasting and news media. Throughout her career, she has worked as a TV reporter, editor, and media spokesperson, covering major social and international events and conducting live reports and interviews on stories that shape public understanding and policy debate. As a multilingual professional skilled in storytelling, media communications, and public affairs analysis, she successfully combines media expertise with cross-industry experience in the legal sector — bringing investigative discipline, factual rigor, and audience-focused communication to every project she leads. Her professional standing, journalistic integrity, and proven contribution to high-quality public communication make her a distinguished recipient of the 1st Annual International Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses 2024.

Ms. Ani Nikohosyan was recognized in the following nomination:

- Excellence in Media Influence

The Organizing Committee of the 1st Annual International Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses is pleased to honor Ms. Ani Nikohosyan for her exceptional contributions to journalism, broadcasting, and public communication.

The Glonary® Awards represent a distinguished international platform for professional recognition, designed to spotlight meaningful achievements across business, technology, design, innovation, and entrepreneurship. More than an award, Glonary® serves as a global framework for independent evaluation, establishing and validating the true value of projects and ideas.

At the core of the program lies a guiding principle: value is measured not by size or visibility, but by the depth of structural, strategic, or cultural impact an initiative creates within its field. The mission of the Glonary® Awards is to document, amplify, and share the achievements of leaders who navigate complexity with intention, think strategically, and contribute measurable, long-term progress to their industries. Recognition through Glonary® acts as a form of reputational capital — strengthening competitiveness, elevating professional standing, and underscoring the maturity and significance of accomplished work.

In 2024, the Glonary® Awards encompassed the following key programs:

- Glonary® Awards for Achievement (Business)
- Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses
- Glonary® Awards for Global Innovation
- Glonary® Awards for Young Innovators
- Glonary® Awards for Women in Business
- Glonary® Awards for Cybersecurity
- Glonary® Awards for Technology & Design

Each program features its own set of categories, enabling organizations, professionals, and teams to showcase their projects. This structure fosters diversity and ensures broad representation across disciplines and sectors, providing innovators and visionaries with a platform to share achievements in various fields.

The 1st Annual Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses celebrate the extraordinary achievements of journalists, broadcasters, content creators, media professionals, and infobusiness leaders driving public understanding, shaping discourse, and elevating standards of public communication across industries, markets, and communities. This prestigious program honors media professionals whose leadership, integrity, and storytelling craft inform, inspire, and contribute meaningful long-term value to public dialogue and audience trust.

Comprehensive information can be found on the official Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses website: <https://glonaryawards.com/influencersandinfobusiness>.

Applications for the competition are open to media organizations of any size, independent journalists, broadcasters, content creators, R&D and editorial teams, individual professionals and experts, nonprofit and mission-driven media outlets, as well as young media innovators. To enter, participants must select the appropriate award program and complete the online application form available on the official Awards website. All submissions should include a comprehensive dossier — project description, performance metrics, relevant links, and visual documentation.

Applicants are required to pay the designated entry fee and will receive confirmation of their submission along with an application ID. All entries are submitted digitally; no physical documents are required.

Key Dates for Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses 2024:

- Final submission deadline: 12/12/2024
- Judging process: 12/12/2024 – 12/20/2024
- Winner announcements: 12/23/2024

The judges of the Glonary Awards are a dedicated group of professionals who voluntarily contribute their expertise to evaluate nominations submitted for consideration. Representing a broad spectrum of industries and knowledge, these judges serve without financial compensation. They commit to upholding fairness, transparency, and integrity throughout the awards process, leveraging their comprehensive understanding of evaluation criteria to ensure balanced and unbiased outcomes.

Selected for their leadership qualities, industry insight, and ability to objectively assess submissions, these experts evaluate entries based on clearly defined criteria. Their role is critical in ensuring that only the most deserving nominations receive recognition, thereby maintaining the prestige of the Glonary Awards.

Key requirements for judges include:

- deep industry expertise
- competence and transparency
- strict adherence to confidentiality
- willingness to follow rigorous evaluation standards
- impartiality and integrity

Judges are encouraged to stay informed of the latest trends and developments in their respective fields through continuous learning. This enables them to provide well-founded and insightful evaluations of award submissions. They follow specific guidelines provided by Glonary Awards to ensure consistency and fairness in the assessment process. These guidelines help maintain a standardized evaluation approach and guarantee that all entries are judged by the same criteria.

Glonary Awards values judges' feedback to continually improve the judging process. Overall, judges work anonymously: each submission is individually scored and subsequently reviewed collectively.

A detailed description of the judging process is available on the official Awards website:
https://glonaryawards.com/judging_process.

The 2024 jury panel of the Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses included accomplished media professionals, journalists, communications strategists, and public-affairs experts from leading international organizations who voluntarily contributed their time and expertise to evaluate the year's submissions. Each member of the panel was selected for their professional record, sector relevance, and demonstrated commitment to fair, evidence-based evaluation in the media and infobusiness fields.

Ms. Ani Nikohosyan was selected as a Laureate of the 1st Annual International Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses 2024 in recognition of her outstanding professional expertise and full compliance with the strict expert selection criteria of The Glonary® Awards.

Ani Nikohosyan is an internationally experienced journalist, television reporter, editor, and media spokesperson with over 15 years of professional work in television broadcasting and news media. Throughout her career, she has covered major social, political, and international events — conducting live reports, news segments, and interviews with public figures, experts, and stakeholders across multiple sectors.

Her primary professional contribution lies in elevating the standard of public communication: combining storytelling craft with rigorous fact-based reporting, audience-focused presentation, and journalistic integrity. As a multilingual professional, she has successfully bridged audiences across cultures and languages, bringing complex stories of social and international significance to broader publics with clarity, accuracy, and trust.

Beyond her on-camera and editorial work, Ms. Nikohosyan has demonstrated strong organizational and people-engagement capabilities, operating effectively in time-sensitive live broadcast environments and across cross-functional newsroom teams. She has also developed expertise outside traditional media, successfully combining her media background with cross-industry experience in the legal sector — an unusual interdisciplinary positioning that strengthens her capacity for investigative thinking, public affairs analysis, and nuanced communication on complex matters of public interest.

Her work consistently reflects the values that the Glonary® Awards seek to recognize: meaningful contribution to public dialogue, professional excellence in execution, and strategic thinking about how media shapes public understanding over the long term.

The Organizing Committee of the 1st Annual International Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses 2024 sincerely thanks Ms. Ani Nikohosyan for her exceptional contributions to journalism and public communication and wishes her continued success in all her future professional endeavors. Her recognition involved a rigorous evaluation process, including a deep-dive review of all submitted materials, the strict application of established performance metrics, and active deliberation by the international jury panel to ensure a merit-based selection.

The Glonary Awards employ a three-tiered judging model:

- Verification: each submission undergoes an initial review to ensure completeness and compliance with entry requirements.
- Anonymous expert evaluation: every entry is anonymized and independently assessed by jury members with relevant industry expertise.
- Final deliberation: top-scoring entries are reviewed collectively by the panels to determine finalists and winners.

Our jury of international experts scores every submission according to the following criteria:

- Innovation & Uniqueness: does the project introduce something new, original, or disruptive to its industry?
- Execution & Quality: how well is the product, service, or initiative implemented or delivered? Is it professionally executed?

- Design & Aesthetics: is the visual presentation refined and aligned with the brand's identity? (for product/service/branding entries)
- Impact & Reach: what measurable results or social/cultural influence has the project achieved? Who benefits from it?
- Strategic Thinking: is there a clear vision behind the project? Does it show strategic positioning and market relevance?
- Public Reception & Reputation: what kind of feedback has the project received from its audience or community? Is there trust and loyalty?

A comprehensive overview of the judging process is available on the official Glinary Awards website: <https://glinaryawards.com/influencersandinfobusiness>.

All jury decisions are independent and final, with no influence from sponsors or public voting.

In determining the final results of the 1st Annual International Glinary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses 2024, the Glinary® Jury meticulously evaluated a slate of internationally recognized nominees from across journalism, broadcasting, content creation, and infobusiness sectors. Ms. Ani Nikohosyan was selected as the Laureate in the nomination “Excellence in Media Influence” for her exceptional standing in television journalism, the depth and consistency of her professional record, and her demonstrated contribution to high-quality public communication.

Ani Nikohosyan — Laureate at Excellence in Media Influence.

Ms. Nikohosyan has built a distinguished career across television broadcasting and news media spanning more than 15 years. Working as TV reporter, editor, and media spokesperson, she has covered major social and international events, delivered live news segments, and conducted interviews with public figures and experts across multiple sectors. Her professional profile combines deep storytelling craft, journalistic integrity, multilingual reach, and unusual cross-industry breadth — including media expertise paired with experience in the legal sector. Through her body of work, she has consistently advanced the standards of public communication, audience trust, and meaningful engagement with stories that matter.

The 1st Annual International Glinary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses 2024 also recognized other distinguished media professionals across complementary nominations, including journalists, broadcasters, content creators, and infobusiness leaders whose work advances public understanding, audience engagement, and the long-term value of professional media practice.

The Glinary® Awards 2024, across all programs, honored a broad cohort of professionals whose work demonstrates measurable excellence, original contribution, and lasting impact. These laureates represent a global community of business leaders, technology innovators, creative professionals, and media experts whose recognition through Glinary® strengthens their reputational capital and validates their professional trajectory.

Finalists and winners receive:

- an official certificate and trophy
- the right to use the “Glonary Award Winner” mark for marketing and promotional purposes
- publication across Glonary's international platforms
- media exposure and opportunities to be invited as judges in future editions
- a winning certificate
- a letter of confirmation

Finalists and winners may order additional trophies, plaques, or medallions for team members or partner organizations.

A participating laureate also receives the following:

- an official letter of confirmation from the Organizing Committee
- an eCertificate following formal recognition
- the laureate's full name published on the Glonary Awards website with a link to an external profile (such as LinkedIn)
- a personalized letter of confirmation reflecting the specific nomination won

The Organizing Committee of the 1st Annual International Glonary® Awards for Influencers & Infobusinesses 2024 once more extends its sincere appreciation to Ms. Ani Nikohosyan for her exceptional professional record and her contribution to elevating the standards of public communication, journalistic integrity, and meaningful media engagement.

Glonary® looks forward to continuing to spotlight outstanding individuals whose work shapes industries, informs publics, and contributes lasting value to the global professional community.

With appreciation and kind regards,

Patrick Bovis,

director Glonary Awards organizing committee

400 S 4th St,

Las Vegas, NV 89101, U.S.

Website: www.glonaryawards.com

Email: hello@glonaryawards.com